

Instruction for J1 Visa Sponsorship Application of Visiting Scholar/Professor

Form DS-2019 Certificate of Eligibility for Exchange Visitor Status

All J1 exchange visitors must obtain a Form DS-2019, Certificate of Eligibility for Exchange Visitor Status in order to apply for a J1 visa to enter the U.S. or to transfer from another J1 sponsoring institution to Midwest University. The Midwest International Research Institute (MIRI) is responsible for issuing Form DS-2019 through the Student & Exchange Visitor Information System (SEVIS), the web-based computer system used by the U.S. Department of Homeland Security to trach and monitor international students, scholars and programs. Please complete the application forms and attach required documents on the checklist before submitting Midwest International Research Institute (MIRI) for a Form DS-2019.

Application Deadline: SIX WEEKS BEFORE ARRIVAL DATE of exchange visitor

From receiving the Form DS-2019 at home country to schedule an interview with a U.S. Consulate to apply for a J1 visa, to make travel plans, and to finally arrive on campus, an exchange visitor needs a minimum of five weeks. Midwest International Research Institute (MIRI) needs 3-5 business days to process the application, depending on the workload of the time the application is submitted. Visitors should Not schedule visa interview with a U.S. Consulate until receiving confirmation that the DS-2019 has been mailed. Please plan early and submit completed application to Midwest International Research Institute (MIRI) SIX weeks before the arrival date. Your cooperation is greatly appreciated by the visitors as well as by Midwest International Research Institute (MIRI) staff.

IMPORTANT: TWO-YEAR HOME COUNRY PHYSICAL PRESENCE REQUIREMENT

Some J-1 Exchange Visitors and their J2 dependents may be affected by a provision referred to as the "two-year home country physical presence requirement." This means that after completing his/her program in the U.S. as outlined on the Form DS-2019, an Exchange Visitor must return to his/her home country for two years. This requirement usually applies to the following: 1) Exchange Visitors whose programs are financed in whole or part, directly or indirectly, by the U.S. or home country government and or a foreign sponsor; 2) Exchange Visitors whose country and field of specialized knowledge (skills) are listed in the most recent "skills list" published by the U.S. Department of State; 3) Exchange Visitors who are receiving graduate medical education or training in the U.S.A. waiver of this requirement may be possible. This special characteristic of J-1/J-2 status should be clearly understood by the J1 Exchange Visitor. Any questions regarding this matter should be discussed with the Midwest International Research Institute (MIRI) of Midwest University.
